

Aubergine
 RESTAURANT PATISSERIE

The New Player in Town is the
Best French

It may be new but it's already creating a buzz around the metro and the whole country. In the July 17 issue of The Philippine Star, Aubergine Restaurant and Patisserie was listed as one of the "Top Ten International Restaurants" in the Philippines. Aubergine boast a show kitchen, a great wine bar and excellent pastry, of course. But you'll come back for classic favorites like seared duck foie gras, Russian Osetra caviar, or to try surprising items like the duck consommé (served with a foie gras ravioli at center) or Chilean sea bass on pumpkin Mouseline. Pricey but worth the experience." boast a show kitchen, a great wine bar and excellent pastry, of course. But you'll come back for classic favorites like seared duck foie gras, Russian Osetra caviar, or to try surprising items like the duck consommé (served with a foie gras ravioli at center) or Chilean sea bass on pumpkin Mouseline. Pricey but worth the experience. Aubergine is located at 32nd and 5th Bldg., Fort Bonifacio. Tel. 856-9888.

Here's a rundown of the country's frontrunners in the international cuisine:

- Best French – Aubergine Restaurant and Patisserie
- Best Filipino - Fely J's Kitchen
- Best Spanish – Casa Armas
- Best Thai – Thai at Silk
- Best American – Burgoo
- Best Indian – Kashmir
- Best Italian – Cantinetta-Italian Cafe and Vinoteca
- Best Japanese – Tsukiji
- Best Chinese – Gloria Maris Greenhills
- Best Singaporean/Malaysian – Banana Leaf

